

AOP Health is the European pioneer for integrated therapies for rare diseases and in critical care. To enhance our team in the US we are looking for a:

Vice President Medical Affairs (US)

07102 Newark | Full-time employee | Start: as of now |

In this role, you will establish and lead US Medical Affairs for Rapiblyk, shaping the scientific foundation that drives evidence-based adoption in critical care and cardiology. You will build and guide the MSL organization, define scientific engagement strategy, and ensure compliant, high-impact medical communications that strengthen credibility and clinical partnership.

What Your Day To Day Will Look Like

- Build, hire, and mentor a high-performing MSL team; set engagement strategy, territory plans, and metrics.
- Lead KOL strategy, advisory boards, and external scientific collaborations; capture and synthesize insights to inform strategy.
- Oversee congress, publications, and medical communications; partner with Clinical on IITs/RWE as appropriate.
- Ensure compliant separation from commercial; chair MLR as medical signatory and provide scientific training for internal teams.
- Serve as the primary medical spokesperson with external stakeholders and represent AOP at scientific congresses.

Your Qualifications and Experience

- MD/DO/PharmD with 10+ years in Medical Affairs; proven experience building and leading MSL teams.
- Strong knowledge of US regulatory requirements for medical communications, Cardiology or critical care experience preferred.
- Exceptional communication and KOL engagement skills.
- Excellent analytical and strategic thinking skills.

Main Benefits

- ★ Bonus
- 🏠 Homeoffice
- 🚗 Company car
- 📱 Employee mobile phone
- 🕒 Flexible working hours
- 💻 Laptop
- 🎓 Initial and continuing education

Your Contact

- Ability to lead and manage teams effectively.
- Rare disease launch experience and exposure to registries and real-world evidence (RWE) generation preferred.
- Experience with medical information systems and safety/pharmacovigilance interfaces preferred.
- US-based; travel to support field medical and congress activities (~40%).

Our Offer

- An opportunity to build and lead a national commercial organization for a high-impact therapy.
- A collaborative and entrepreneurial culture that values innovation, accountability, and growth.
- Competitive compensation package and bonus scheme
- Benefits: 401K/Life/STD/LTD, 20 days paid vacation, car allowance
- Professional development and career advancement opportunities within a growing international company.

If you would like to work as a team player in an international environment and can identify with our values "Agile, Ambitious, Aligned, Accountable and Appreciative", then: Take this CHANCE and

Larisa Barkowski

Talent Acquisition Lead

Further information on our website:

aop-health.com